THE PRESIDENT WILL DO AS HE PLEASES

(Mr. POE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. POE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, the President has taken an oath to uphold the Constitution, but this President has refused to follow and enforce certain laws.

He doesn't enforce all immigration laws. He doesn't enforce the mandatory minimum punishments. He doesn't enforce the work requirement for welfare recipients. He doesn't enforce the marijuana laws.

He illegally made recess appointments. He illegally changed ObamaCare by postponing implementation for Big Business, Small Business and individuals, and granting arbitrary waivers to special people.

He unconstitutionally took America to war in Libya.

All of these actions are unilateral, unlawful, and unconstitutional. The Constitution requires the President to execute and enforce law, not create his own laws or ignore the rule of law. However, this President, the former constitutional law professor, seems to think the Constitution is a mere suggestion, and he will do as he pleases.

And that's just the way it is.

TRIBUTE TO ROSA PARKS

(Mrs. BEATTY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mrs. BEATTY. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to pay tribute to a woman who is considered the modern mother of the civil rights movement, Rosa Parks. This past Sunday, we celebrated the 58th anniversary of Rosa Parks refusing to give up her seat on that bus in Montgomery, Alabama.

I am so proud to stand here from the great State of Ohio, because it was the great State of Ohio that was the first State in this Nation to name December 1 Rosa Parks Day.

On Thursday and Friday of this week, in our district, we will bring people from all over the State to pay tribute to her, and we will bring in more than 600 little children who will learn about civil rights and understand the value of working together.

That day in 1955, she started something larger than herself. She sat down so we could stand up. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor to be a part of the legislation that created December 1 in Ohio as Rosa Parks Day.

RESTORING MEDICARE ADVANTAGE CHOICE FOR OUR SENIORS

(Mr. ROTHFUS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROTHFUS. Mr. Speaker, Medicare Advantage provides quality coverage to many seniors in western Pennsylvania. It is popular because it provides more options and increased care coordination.

Until 2011, seniors were able to take advantage of an annual open enrollment period from January through March and make adjustments if the plan they chose did not meet their needs. Unfortunately, the Affordable Care Act eliminated this option.

The Wall Street Journal recently reported that one of the Nation's largest Medicare Advantage providers had dropped thousands of doctors from its network. As a result, seniors may be unsure about whether they need to switch plans to continue seeing their doctors when the current open enrollment period ends this Saturday.

This uncertainty underscores the importance of the Medicare Beneficiary Preservation of Choice Act, H.R. 2453, which Congressman KURT SCHRADER and I introduced earlier this year. This bill would restore seniors' freedom to try their plans and make changes.

I thank my 13 Republican and Democrat colleagues for joining me in advocating for our seniors, and I encourage Members on both sides of the aisle to support this commonsense and bipartisan legislation.

AFFORDABLE CARE ACT SUCCESS STORY

(Mr. VEASEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. VEASEY. Mr. Speaker, I have risen before to talk about the fact that the congressional district that I represent has the highest uninsured rate out of any congressional district in the entire country.

About 40 percent of the constituents that I represent don't have health care insurance, and I wanted to talk today about how the Affordable Care Act is already helping many of those constituents in the very district that I represent.

Yesterday, I found out that a constituent who resides in the district I represent, Jason Roberts, had suffered from cancer and that he had been running out of options, but when the Affordable Care Act kicked in, he found out that his COBRA benefits would be saved.

Because of the options offered through the Affordable Care Act, Jason, who, again, had suffered from cancer, he actually dropped his monthly premiums by $251 and his deductible by $1,500. That is an overall savings of about $4,500 a year for what Jason describes as "great coverage."

The simple fact that he and so many others are actually able to keep their insurance, even if they have a pre-existing condition like Jason had with cancer, is a true testament to the benefits of the health care law.

Let's work together to make sure that this health care law works for all of the uninsured like Jason and that it continues to work for all Americans.

THE INTERIM AGREEMENT WITH IRAN IS A BAD DEAL

(Mr. COFFMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. COFFMAN. Mr. Speaker, last month I was joined by my colleagues in sending a letter to Secretary of State Kerry to express concern about a potential interim agreement with Iran.

Two weeks ago, such a deal was reached. It is a bad deal. The world rolls back sanctions without Iran fully dismantling its nuclear weapons program.

Sanctions have impacted Iran's economy, leading its people to elect a less confrontational President. This recent political shift, in addition to pressure from sanctions, drove Iran to the negotiating table. Regardless, the Ayatollah, the real power in Iran, continues spewing hateful language at Israel and the West.

Now is not the time to ease sanctions that have been effective for a mere promise that Iran's nuclear weapons program will be temporarily suspended. The sanctions' intent was to prevent a nuclear Iran. Anything less than the
